

FORT ROSS CHAPEL

This chapel was a part of the settlement founded by the Russians in 1812, known as Fort Ross. The Fort was in the form of a quadrangle of Redwood walls located on the cliff on the coast line of California, several miles north of San Francisco. Acquired as State Landmark #5 in 1906, the building ruins have been restored.

— Nor-Cal Supply Co., Box 356, Clearlake Oaks, Calif. —

U. S. A.

C7808

COLOR BY MIKE ROBERTS
BERKELEY, CALIF. 94710